

You are invited to the World Premiere of Quest!

What are life's most important questions? Does anyone have the answers? Would you travel over land and sea to find the wise hermit who knows? Join us for Quest, where our heroine starts a journey to discover this herself in an original circus-theater production created by Leslie Buxbaum Danzig, based on Tolstoy's The Three Questions. This celebration of the present moment will make you laugh and gasp with awe.

Through March 19
Fridays, Saturdays, & Sundays

We recommend this show for kids aged five and above. Running time: 80 minutes without intermission

The Actors Gymnasium
927 Noyes St

"Recommended . . . a standout act by Amanda Crockett" – Chicago Reader

"This family-friendly outing is fun and astonishing. To quote the little girl to my left, "Oh my gosh!" She repeated this phrase often." – The Fourth Walsh

"a thrilling ride through the unconscious mind in pursuit of the truth . . . Any good circus show should teeter at the edge of chaos, and these actors gleefully oblige." – Evanston Roundtable

"what is happening is ambitious, adventurous, inventive and full of amazing flipping, climbing, swinging and tossing" – Third Coast Review
